Beginning Awakening

The weekend gets off to an early start with this introductory session. Dwanna will begin the evening with insights into the world of mediumship and how she receives and interprets messages from the spirit dimensions. She'll also be giving messages to some members of the audience. Then Marilyn will present a short workshop which will spark your intuition and show you that everyone actually knows everything. She will instill in you the confidence to know that you, too, are psychic and can use your abilities in everyday life to make things flow easier. Dawn will wrap the evening up explaining how she "touches in" with Guardian Angels and Spirit Guides, and uses clairvoyance to give others guidance and direction in their lives.
